

A Safe Place to Save Your Stimulus Funds

Millions of Americans will soon receive stimulus payments as part of an additional federal stimulus package recently passed by the United States Congress.

For people living with disabilities, stimulus funds will not count as a resource for federal means-tested benefit programs, like Medicaid and Social Security Income (SSI), for the first 12 months after the payment is received. By depositing your stimulus payment in a STABLE Account, you can protect the funds and spend them later.

Stimulus funds deposited in a STABLE Account:
